CONVOCATION IS DRAWING TO A CLOSE

(From Thursday Advertiser.)

Declaring it to be the most success ful convocation held in the history of the Hawaiian diocese, Bishop Restarick ordered a recess in the proceedings and functions of the body throughout yesterday. Last night all the delegate laity and clergy, were entertained at a dinner given annually on these occa-sions by the Men's Club of the diocese. George F. Davies, president of the or ganization, acted as toastmaster.

The order of business today will b a reception open to the public and held under the auspices of the guilds of the Epiphany Mission, Kaimuki and Hawai Congregation in the grounds of th Cathedral from four to six o'clock in the afternoon.

In the evening the business accounts of the diocese will be taken up from where it was left off last Saturday.

Will Close Today.

"This will bring the convocation to a close," said the Rev. Canon Ault yesterday. "Providing we finish all the business now awaiting the pleasure of the body, the meeting will adjourn tomorrow evening. As I understand it there remains only about twenty min work which needs our attention. But one can never tell what factor may prove in need of more time, so we the convocation will adjourn." Enjoying his first vacation in ten years, the Rev. W. H. Fenton-Smith of the Episcopal Church of the Haly Apos-tles at Hilo, departed on the Wilhel-min vacatoriae in mina yesterday for a six-month trip through the States in the course of which he will represent the Hawaiian diocese at the general conference of the Episcopal churches of the United States, which will convene during the month of October in New York City. Most of the delegates to the meeting of the convocation of the Episcopal church of the Hawaiian Islands, which is at present in session in this city were down at the ship's side to bid the pastor a warm alona, Expected Home With Bride.

"I should not wonder that the Rev. Fenton-Smith should come back a married man," said the Rev. Canon Ault yesterday. "He plans to spend several months in California and being a bachelor, the widely advertised beauties of the Golden State may at last dint into his heart. However, it is all guesswork, "

The lay delegate to the annual conference in New York City is Mr. J. N. Williams, who at present is on his way to England, Arthur Restarick, the bishop's son, who is the alternate for Mr. Williams, is attending Harvard, but both lay delegate and alternate have been notified of their appoint ment by the convocation and have made all plans to be present at the conference in New York City.

LAHAINA DEPLORABLY DIRTY, SAYS DAVIS

Attorney Wins Case for Client . And Makes Observations While on Maui.

Pleased with his work on Molokai and highly offended with the odors of what he is pleased to style "insanitary Lahaina." Judge George A. Davis returned to Honolulu yesterday from a two-weeks' tour of Molokai and Maui. "Say, but I had a bully time on Mo-lokai," said Davis yesterday. "To be-gin with, I had no difficulty in clearing my client Howard D. Bowen, from the ridiculous charge of illegally branding calves alleged to be owned by Mrs. Emma Medcalf Nakuina of Molokai, I have no hesitation in saying the charges were trumped up.

"When we got over there Deputy

The block about the hotel smelled so strong we could not go by with-out putting handkerchiefs to our nostrils and almost strangling for the lack of nir. Put it as strong as you want, so long as you make people understand Lahainn is very dirty now, which is a shame. It was formerly a particularly nice spot. What it needs is a general alcaning up.

HONORS WIFE OF HIS FOE

LONDON, May 4.—Winston Church-ill, in asking Mrs. Austen Chamberlain to dristen the new cruiser that is to be launched within the next two or three weeks from the Armstrong-Whitworth yard, emphasizes the more ur-brne side of political life which so often puzzles foreign onlookers. Besides being a graceful little compliment to it is appropriate for more than one reason. The cruiser in question is to be named H. M. S. Birmingham, and if there is one name more than another-unless it be that of John Brightwhich deminates the capital of the mid-lands it is surely that of Chamberlain, as liberals recognize quite as freely as Another excellent ground for Mr.

Churchill's choice is that Austen Cham-berlain, as a treasury beach man, re-relved his "baptism of fire" at the dmiralty, in which department he civil lord for nearly five years before his ministerial progress ultimately led to the postmaster generalship and the hancellor of the exchequer. At a general convocation of the members of the Scottish Rite held last night at Masonic Temple, Alakea and Hotel streets, officers of the different bodies were elected for the ensuing year.
